

I am writing in support of K-LOVE radio which plays a significant role in our families life, especially my young daughter. I believe that we are only caving to special interest when we push expansion of LPFM and it will benefit few. Thank-you for this opportunity.